The Western NY School of Real Estate & Western NY Salesperson Broker Training Schools are nonsectarian coeducational & independent NYS accredited real estate schools with locations approved throughout NYS. Home inspection training must be completed in the classroom as well as the continuing education programs. Real estate qualifying/licensing programs and continuing education for real estate agents and brokers may be completed online or in the classroom.

Video courses are allowed for agents/brokers – contact the school for more information. Online courses for real estate agents/brokers do not require ANY tests as per NYS regulations. Minimum timing requirements are strictly enforced.
